LYON'S MAGNETIC POWDER.

Will destroy Garden Insects, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs, Fleas, Ants, Moths, and all pests of the vermin kind.

The importance of a reliable article of this kind is inestimable. In warm weather all human beings with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while amidst the ferns of Asia, observed that all insects lighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead.
This fact was made use of to guard their night camps from these intruders. Quantities of the plant were brought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powdered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age and climate.
Medals and Letters Patent have been obtained from the Governments of England, France, Germany, and Russia, from the World's Fair, and numerous medical and horticultural colleges and societies.

Letter from the President of the U. States.
EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, 31st Jan., 1859.

"Mr. EMANUEL LYON.—Dear Sir:—I have the pleasure to inform you that the Royal Commission of the World's Fair, at London, have awarded you a Medal and Certificate for the great value of your Magnetic Powder, for exterminating insects.
MILLARD FILLMORE, Chairman."

The above was accompanied by a certificate of Prince Albert.

IT IS FREE FROM POISON.

Mr. E. LYON.—Dear Sir: We have analyzed and tested your Magnetic Powder and find them perfectly harmless to mankind and domestic animals, but certain death when inhaled by bugs, ants, and insects. JAS. R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist, LAURENCE MED. PROF. Chem.
New York Hospital.

Mr. John L. Rome, Superintendent of the New York Hospital, says, "he has expelled all the bugs, ants, roaches, moths, &c., with Lyon's Powder, and finds it of immense value." Every gardener must have a direct interest in an article of this kind. Reference can be made to the Aster, St. Nicholas, and Metropolitan Hotels; to Judge Meigs, President of the American Institute; to James Gordon Bennett, Gen. Winfield
Scott, Cyrus W. Field, L. M. Pease, of the Five Points Mission, etc., etc. Lyon's Magic says, "This discovery of Prof. Lyon is of national importance. The Farmers' Club have tested it thoroughly. It will destroy locusts, grasshoppers, ants, moths, bugs, and all vermin. Garden plants can be preserved, and houses made pure."
Arrangements are now made through Messrs.
BARNES & PARK, of New York, to have it sold throughout the world. Many worth less imitations are advertised. Be cautious!

"New York, November 8th, 1858.
"In referring from business, I have sold all my Insect Powders and Pills. Letters Patent and the secrets pertaining thereto, to Messrs. BARNES & PARK. This Powder is a discovery made by myself, and brought from the interior of Asia, and is unknown to any other persons. The genuine and effective article is put up in tin canisters, and will continue to bear my name. E. LYON."

Rats and mice cannot be reached by a powder and are killed by a Magnetic Pill. Order them through any merchant.
"The Lyon's Powder kills insects in a trice,
But Lyon's Pills are mixed for rats and mice.
Sample boxes, 25 cents; regular size, 50 cents and $1.00. Follow directions. Use freely and thoroughly."

Poetry.

[FOR THE DEMOCRAT.
YAZOO.]

Thou gentle stream, whose quiet waters flow
Beneath high hills—through verdant valleys low,
Now winding 'mid some wild and tangled glen,
Then hurrying forth upon the plain again—
How oft thy breast hath borne the light canoe
Of dusky brave—the wild and free Yazoo!

How oft, when rose the circling, gaudy sun,
And birds gave note the busy day had come,
The timid deer hath paused upon thy brink
To rest his limbs and lap a hasty drink,
Or bounding off from hunterman closing fast,
Soon gory lay, the red man's prey at last!

While squirrels frisk'd, in doubtful wond'ring gloe,
Among the boughs of some tall neighboring tree,
And sportive fish, in morning play or fight,
Upheaved their bodies to the early light.

When evening came and spread its shades abroad,
And twilight breezes brought their fragrant load,
The village squaws came round their weary lodges,
To give and take expected living words,
Or be repulsed by boorish savage hand,
(Whose actions spoke him only half a man!)

The grey old men rejoiced at the return,
And for the hunt displayed fresh youth's concern.
The joyous boys their sisters pushed away,
Their prowess told, in deeds they did that day.

How sure their aim! how oft they hit the mark!
In practice from the day dawn till the dark!
And then they wish'd that they were great strong men.

That they might hunt with warriors in the glen.
Red lovers walked upon thy grassy shore,
Repeated tales they oft had told before,
Nor knew they aught of education's art,
But loved alone with Nature's simple heart.

The warriors sat around the old grey head,
Who of some tale kept up the thrilling thread:
Some deed of war, or accident of chase,
Where Yazoo brave stared danger in the face.

Tradition old, of Chah-tah and his band,
Who hither came, led by Manitou's wand.
Then all was still, save when the whip-poor-will Waited on his song in accents loud and shrill.

Or owl's hoarse throat throughout the forest rang,
Or Kay-dids with merry voices sang.
Thus passed, Yazoo, the happy moments then,
From morn to night—from night to morn again.

But changes came—the red men passed away,
Beneath yon mounds the bones of many lay;
Driven away by white man's force, the rest
Now build their lodges in the distant West—
Their game thinn'd out—their falling numbers small.

They soon will fade, like verdure in the fall.
The ringing axe, the noisy rumbling mill,
The open field, the village 'neath the hill,
The starting gun, and puffing steamer's hum,
Proclaim the tale—their race is almost run!

So passes life, since man began the race—
As one scene fades another takes its place.
Thus fall we all, in Time's destructive sweep,
Till Time itself sleeps death's eternal sleep!
